

The John Kirkman Honorary CTE Scholarship

The North Carolina CTE Foundation is honored to sponsor the John Kirkman Honorary CTE Foundation Scholarship. Mr. Kirkman served North Carolina Career & Technical Education for over thirty years. Throughout his tenure in CTE, Mr. Kirkman served as a middle school and high school Agriculture teacher, CTE Director for Lee County Schools, CTE Regional Coordinator and Interim State CTE Director. His dedication and love for CTE led to many contributions that have positively impacted thousands of students, teachers, and administrators across the state.

Scholarship Award

- One $1,500.00 scholarship will be awarded annually to one qualifying high school senior who is pursuing further education (certificate, diploma or degree) at an accredited college (including community college) or university.
- One $100 scholarship will be awarded annually in each of the eight CTE Educational Regions to one qualifying high school senior who is pursuing further education (certificate, diploma or degree) at an accredited college (including community college) or university.

Qualifications:

- Be a CTE concentrator
- Be a full-time student
- 3.0 unweighted grade point average (GPA)
- Be accepted into an accredited college or university

Application: (PART 1)

<https://forms.office.com/r/TRgPdTVuwb>

Requirements: (PART 2)

- A copy of your high school transcript
- Two letters of recommendation, at least one from a Career and Technical Education teacher/instructor
- Picture (head shot)

Deadline: Applications close March 17, 2023

Scholarship Announcement: May 12, 2023